

Digestive System (Part 2) Assessment Rubric

Level	Description of Level of Understanding
4	Has a complete and detailed understanding of the topic: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Food continues to be broken down into smaller and smaller substances in the small intestines. • The small intestine is covered with tiny structures called villi. • The villi are surrounded by capillaries. • The digested food passes through the villi and into the blood through the capillaries. • The circulatory system moves/pumps the blood throughout the body so that the nutrients in the blood reach all the cells throughout the body. Does not express any misconceptions about the topic.
3	Has an understanding of the topic but is missing some of the following details: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Food continues to be broken down into smaller and smaller substances in the small intestines. • The small intestine is covered with tiny structures called villi. • The villi are surrounded by capillaries. • The digested food passes through the villi and into the blood through the capillaries. • The circulatory system moves/pumps the blood throughout the body so that the nutrients in the blood reach all the cells throughout the body. Does not express any misconceptions about the topic.
2	Has an incomplete understanding of the topic and/or has some misconceptions about the topic.
1	Understanding of the topic is incomplete and contains significant misconceptions.